Temporary employee is one who is hired for a specific period of time or specific purpose, not to exceed five (5) consecutive months. This period of employment may be extended beyond five (5) months by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

Temporary employees shall serve one (1) probation period as a temporary employee during their first sixty (60) consecutive working days. The Parties may mutually agree that Article 16.04 does not apply when a temporary employee is appointed to a regular position, which agreement shall not be unreasonably denied. The probationary rate does not apply when a temporary employee is appointed to a regular position during the probationary period under Article 16.04, if the employee has previously completed sixty (60) consecutive working days in the applicable classification.

Casual employee is one who is hired on a day-to-day intermittent basis, primarily to relieve or augment staff. A casual employee shall not be employed continuously for a period in excess of two (2) months in any one position. Student is defined as one who is currently attending or returning to a Secondary School, College or University. A student can be hired at the Employer's discretion to assist with special projects or to augment staff when there is increased workload. The student rate will not apply for operation of heavy-duty equipment (i.e. backhoe, dump truck) as long as there are qualified regular or casual employees available. In the event a student is used for this, they will be paid the casual rate. A student will work under the general direction of the Foreman, Manager or designate. A student will not be included on the stand-by list.

Where a conflict arises over requests for vacation leave submitted by two (2) or more employees on or before the February 28th deadline, and the conflict cannot otherwise be resolved, seniority shall govern. Employees will be notified within one (1) month of making their requests as to whether or not the vacation time had been granted. At the employee's discretion, the vacation periods set out in this Article may be split.

New employees shall not be entitled to take vacation time during the employee's probationary period.

The Union shall be promptly notified in writing of all appointments, hirings, transfers, layoffs, recalls and terminations of employees.

16.08 Service Severance Pay

The Parties agree to be bound by the provisions of Section 63 of the Employment Standards Act, with respect to service severance pay upon termination of employment. Termination shall be as defined in the Act, but shall not include voluntary resignation or retirement.

ARTICLE 17 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

17.01 Definition of Layoff

A layoff is a temporary or indefinite and involuntary:

- a) separation of an employee from employment, or
- b) reduction of hours of work of an employee of fifteen percent (15%) or more.

17.02 Role of Seniority on Layoff

In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority.

17.03 Advance Notice of Layoff

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, regular employees shall be given fourteen (14) days written notice of layoff or pay in lieu of notice. Such notice shall include the effective date of layoff.

17.04 Bumping

A regular employee who has received notice of layoff may bump any employee with less seniority. Any employee being bumped shall be given ten (10) days notice of layoff or pay in lieu. In order to bump, the employee must have the ability to perform the duties of the position to which bumping without further training and must possess any required certification and/or licenses.

A regular employee who intends to exercise bumping rights under this Agreement shall notify the Employer to that effect, in writing, not later than five days after receiving notice of layoff.

An employee who bumps shall serve the trial period as provided elsewhere in this Collective Agreement.

17.05 Recall Rights

A regular employee who is laid off shall have recall-to-employment rights for twelve (12) months from the effective date of the layoff. An employee who is recalled shall have period of layoff considered as if at work for seniority purposes.

An offer by the Employer of an appointment for casual work or temporary work does not affect the recall rights of the employee on layoff, whether the offer is accepted or not.

A regular employee who has been laid off and accepts an assignment for casual or temporary work shall receive the "regular in a classification" rate of pay for that assignment.

An employee whose recall rights have expired shall lose seniority and shall be considered separated from employment. If subsequently re-employed by the Employer, the person shall be deemed to be a new employee.

17.06 Recall Procedure

Employees who are on layoff, and who have recall rights, shall be recalled in the order of seniority, provided the persons involved have the skills, knowledge and abilities to do the jobs. Employees with recall rights shall be given the first opportunity for casual or temporary assignments while on lay-off.

Notice of recall shall be given personally or by telephone by the Employer, and shall be confirmed by a letter delivered by hand or sent by certified mail to the employee's last known mailing address, not less than ten (10) days prior to the proposed date of recall whenever possible. It is the responsibility of the employee with recall rights to keep the Employer informed in writing of the employee's current address and telephone number.

17.07 Failure to Respond to Recall

Where a laid off employee fails to return to employment within ten (10) days of being notified to do so, and the failure is not due to sickness or other just cause, the employee shall forfeit all recall rights and shall be deemed to be separated. For the purpose of this Article only, "just cause" shall include the requirement to provide another Employer with two (2) weeks notice of termination.

17.08 Grievances

A grievance related to the matter of layoff, recall or bumping shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 18 - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

18.01 Union Business Involving Grievances, Meetings with Employers, Collective Bargaining

a) Union Business Leave - Involving Grievances

A steward or Union officer who investigates and/or attempts to settle grievances, including attendance at grievance meetings with the Employer, when it is necessary to be away from the job may do so without loss of regular pay. In such cases, the permission from the immediate excluded supervisor for time off must first be obtained.

b) Union Business Leave - Meetings with Employer

The Employer agrees to grant time off without loss of pay to employees representing the Union to attend joint committee meetings with representatives of the Employer, or to attend other meetings with the Employer at the request of the Employer, provided the employee seeking the leave has given four (4) hours notice (where practicable) to the immediate supervisor.

c) Union Business Leave - Collective Bargaining

A maximum of two (2) employees shall be granted leave of absence without loss of pay to attend collective bargaining, if held during regular working hours. Two (2) weeks notice must be given. Shorter notice periods will be considered on a case-by-case basis and will not be unreasonably denied. Additional Union Representatives may be booked off and be paid for by the Union.

18.02 Union Business Leave - Officers, Members

The Employer agrees to grant leave of absence without pay to Union officers or members, for the purposes of Union business including conventions and seminars, to a total maximum of thirty (30) days per calendar year, provided:

- a) a maximum of two (2) persons may be absent at the same time;
- b) two (2) weeks written notice has been given;
- c) a suitable substitute can be obtained, if the Employer wishes to do so.

18.03 Union Business Leave

An employee granted Union Business Leave pursuant to this Article shall continue to receive benefits and payment of wages from the Employer as if the employee was not on leave. The Union shall reimburse the Employer for the pay plus thirty percent (30%) for benefit and other costs, for the leave period. The Employer shall invoice the Union and the Union shall make payment in full within thirty (30) days of receipt of the invoice. At no time will the Employer be responsible to pay wages for Union leave on an employee's normal day off or for more hours than an employee normally works in a day or week.

18.04 Full-Time Union Position

An employee who is selected for a full-time position with the Union, or any body with which the Union is affiliated, shall be granted leave of absence without pay for a period up to two (2) years. Such leave may be renewed on request during the period of leave. The employee or the Union shall pay the total premium costs of the employee's benefit plans for the period of the leave of absence. The employee shall accrue seniority during such leave.

18.05 Bereavement Leave (Regular Employees)

A regular employee shall be granted leave of absence, at the time of death or funeral, or immediately upon learning of the death, in the case of death of a parent, parent-in-law, spouse, common-law spouse, child, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, brother and sister in-law, step parent and step-children. Five (5) days leave without loss of pay shall be granted.

Additional leave of absence with or without pay may be granted as appropriate, at the discretion of the Chief Administrative Officer. Requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

18.06 Maternity Leave, Parental Leave (Regular and Temporary Employees)

The Employer shall grant an employee maternity leave, without pay but with applicable benefits, in accordance with the Employment Standards Act. When an employee decides to return to work from maternity leave, she shall provide the Employer with at least two (2) weeks notice.

The Employer shall grant an employee parental leave of absence, without pay, in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

Upon returning to work from maternity leave and/or parental leave, the employee shall be assigned to the former position or an equivalent position, should the former position no longer exist.

18.07 Birth and Adoption (Regular and Temporary Employees)

A regular or temporary employee shall be granted three (3) days leave of absence, without loss of pay, to attend to parental responsibilities at the time of the birth of a child of the employee, or the time of arrival in the case of adoption.

18.08 Jury Duty, Court Witness (Regular and Temporary Employees)

The Employer shall grant leave of absence to an employee, if the employee is not personally involved in the case, who is required by subpoena to serve as juror or witness in any court. The Employer shall pay such an employee the difference between normal earnings (excluding differentials and premiums) and the payment received for jury service or court witness, excluding payment for travelling, meals or other expenses. The employee shall provide the Employer with proof of service and the amount received. Time spent by an employee, in his capacity as an employee, required to appear before any government body, or who is subpoenaed or is required to serve as a court witness in any matter arising out of his employment shall be considered as time worked at the appropriate rate of pay.

18.09 General Leave

The Employer may grant leave of absence without pay to any employee requesting such leave for good and sufficient reason, acceptable to the Employer. Requests for such leave shall be made in writing. An employee granted leave under this Clause, shall have the option of continuing benefits coverage by prepaying the entire cost of premiums on a monthly basis.

18.10 Family Illness (Regular Employee)

Provided the necessary sick leave credits are available, a regular employee will be granted leave without loss of pay charged to sick leave credits, to attend to urgent matters arising when a member of the employee's family is seriously ill.

The Employer may request confirmation from a medical practitioner.

18.11 Volunteer Fire Fighters/Search & Rescue Team (Regular and Temporary Employees)

A regular employee who acts as a volunteer fire fighter with the Village of Nakusp or as a member of Search & Rescue team, shall be given leave of absence without loss of pay, provided the employee is not required on the job at the time, and there is an emergency situation requiring the employee's services during regular working hours. Such an employee shall not receive remuneration from any other source for the period while being paid by the Employer, and no other payments will be made by the Employer to an individual for those hours when the employee qualifies under this provision.

ARTICLE 19 - CLASSIFICATION AND RECLASSIFICATION

19.01 Classification and Specifications

The Employer and the Union agree Descriptions shall be established for each classification in the bargaining unit. The Employer shall prepare the Descriptions. A copy of each, and any changes made thereto from time to time, shall be provided to the Union. The Descriptions will not be finalized until the Employer and the Union have discussed the contents if the Union, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Descriptions, wishes to do so.

In the event the Employer established any new classifications in the bargaining unit, or if a substantial change is made to any existing Descriptions, the Descriptions and the rate for the classification will be established by the Employer. The Union will be provided with a copy of the Description and with the rate applicable. The position can be filled following normal procedures. If the Union objects to the new rate in writing, within thirty (30) days, the Parties will meet to negotiate the rate. If the Parties cannot agree on the rate, the rate will be determined by a one (1) person Arbitration Board established as provided in the Grievance Procedure Article in this Agreement. The issue of whether the change is substantial is grievable within the thirty (30) day period.

19.02 Reclassification

If an employee believes that as a result of changes in duties, the employee no longer falls within the employee's classification, the employee, through the Union, may apply for reclassification to another or to a new classification. The application will be considered by the Employer and a written response given within thirty (30) days, and if the employee is not satisfied with the result, the Union may process the matter at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. Should no settlement be reached, the arbitration step may be utilized with one (1) person Arbitration Board. The arbitrator, in such a case, is limited to determining which of the existing classifications is appropriate, or requiring the Employer to establish a new one which is appropriate. The reclassification and a rate of pay shall be retroactive to the date the employee first applied for the successful reclassification.

19.03 Elimination of Classification

An existing classification, for which the Union is bargaining agent, shall not be eliminated without prior agreement with the Union.

ARTICLE 20 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE AND ADJUSTMENT PLANS

A Labour/Management Consultative Committee shall be established consisting of up to three (3) representatives of the Union and up to three (3) representatives of the Employer.

20.02 Functions of Committee

The Committee shall concern itself with discussing issues relating to the workplace that affect the Parties or any employee bound by this Agreement, with problems and potential problems involving the Parties, but not with grievances, and shall have the power only to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer.

20.03 Committee Meetings

Meetings shall be held at least every second month six (6) times per year at mutually agreeable times. If possible, times for the six (6) yearly meetings shall be scheduled before the end of January each year so that the times for these meetings is established well in advance. Additional meetings may be called by mutual agreement of the Parties.

20.04 Adjustment Plans

The Parties agree to be bound by the provisions of Section 54 of the Labour Relations Code.

If the proposed change affects the terms, conditions or security of employment of more than one (1) employee, notice of ninety (90) days will be given to the Union.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any employee laid off two (2) months or more prior to the proposed introduction of a change described in Section 54 of the Code shall be deemed not to be affected by the change, and therefore shall not be eligible for any benefit as a result of this Article.
